

Karen Jenkins is an independent consultant. She prepares Social Impact reports for Sanlam Private Equity (SPE) on the company's investments as sub-contractor to the University of Stellenbosch Business School. Karen also prepared a Reference Guide on Private Equity for SPE that is used for training purposes. Market research projects include an analysis of the South African over-the-counter (OTC) market for Euromonitor.

She has assisted management of small- and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in the manufacturing, wholesale, retail and services sectors with development of performance management systems, improvement of human resource management systems, recruitment, industrial relations issues, black economic empowerment status evaluations and basic financial management.

Karen holds an MSc and MBA from the University of Stellenbosch.