

Curriculum Vitae – Hilton Vos - Area Manager : Nedbank Business Banking Franchise Division

Hilton was born in the W Cape, in the summer of '63, and while he spent all of his school, University and initial work years in Johannesburg, he remains a Capetonian and Western Province supporter.

Hilton attended Northcliff High School where he obtained his Matric certificate, before doing military service, and then going to Witwatersrand University where he completed a Bachelor of Arts, with Legal credits and then majoring in Industrial Sociology and International Relations.

During his youth, Hilton played provincial baseball, and represented his University and province on the Rugby field at under 20 and senior level.

Hilton spent a few years, working and travelling in the USA. On his return, He joined the Banking industry and has spent the past 20 plus years in Retail, Joint venture and Corporate Sales. Reaching senior management levels at various A2 and top 4 South African banks.

In 2010, Hilton attended The Gordon Institute of Business Science (GIBS) in Association with the University of Pretoria, and obtained his Honours degree in Finance.

If not "banking" Hilton would be found travelling, on the golf course or riding his 1984 Harley Davidson Heritage Softail Classic. Hilton plays the drums as a pastime and enjoys a good jam session with local musso's. These passions he shares with his wife Nita, two boys and a daughter who is studying environmental sciences at the University of Delaware in the USA.

Hilton enjoys public speaking and has addressed many clients, business Forums, workshops and study groups, as well as doing Joint business entrepreneur seminars with various authors and leaders in S African industry. One day Hilton hopes to write a book on how to survive Corporate Banking life and still have a sense of humour..... until then he will remain "The Banker" to his friends and Family.
